

A HISTORY OF ENGLISH DRAMA
1660-1900

BY ALLARDYCE NICOLL

VOLUME III
LATE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY DRAMA
1750-1800

CAMBRIDGE
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

PUBLISHED BY THE SYNDICS OF THE CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

London Office: Bentley House, N.W. 1
American Branch: New York: 32 East 57th Street, 22
Agents for Canada, India, and Pakistan: Macmillan

First Edition 1922

Reprinted 1937

Reprinted 1955

Issued as Volume III of
A History of English Drama 1660-1900

First printed in Great Britain at The University Press, Cambridge Reprinted by Spottiswoode, Ballantyne & Co., Ltd., Colchester

CONTENTS

Chapter One

THE THEATRE

	PAGE
I. Introductory	I
II. The Audience	5
III. The Theatre	22
IV. Actors, Actresses and Managers	39

Chapter Two

TRAGEDY

I. General Tendencies of the Period	49
II. English and Foreign Models	56
III. The Relics of Augustan Tragedy	73
IV. Domestic Tragedies	88
V. Pseudo-Romantic Tragedy	91
VI. Melodrama	97

Chapter Three

COMEDY

I. The Main Types	108
II. English and Foreign Models	110
III. Sentimental Comedy	124
IV. Comedies of Manners	154
V. The Comedy of Humours and of Intrigue	171
VI. Farce	178

Chapter Four

MISCELLANEOUS FORMS OF DRAMA

	PAGE
I. Definitions	191
II. Opera, Comic Opera and Kindred Forms	195
III. Pantomimes, Preludes, Dramatic Poems and Masques	208
IV. Burlesques	214
V. Dramatic Poems and Unacted Plays	217

Appendix A

THE THEATRES: 1750-1800	229
-----------------------------------	-----

Appendix B

HAND-LIST OF PLAYS: 1750-1800	231
i. English Plays and Operas	232
ii. Italian Operas, Oratorios and Ballets performed at the Opera House	348
Supplementary to Chapter I	365
Supplementary to Chapter II	369
Supplementary to Chapters III and IV	372
Supplementary Notes to the Handlist of Plays	376
INDEX	409